Tyler Murderer Is Found Insane--Will Be Sent To Farview

Doctors Stewart and Gordon Testified Man Was Mentally Unsound--Many Witnesses Gave Same Testimony

SLAV CLAIMS HE HAD RIGHT TO KILL

The inquiry into the mental condition of Mike Yuhosz, the Tyler murderer, was held before Judge Bell this morning. The jury impaneled by Sheriff McCloskey was called into the box at 10 o'clock and Yuhosz's attorney W. A. Hagerty opened the case by reciting to the jurymen the circumstances surrounding the killing and stated that they would endeavor to show that Yuhosz was of unsound mind at the time of said killing and was still a lunatic.

Dr. S. C. Stewart was then sworn and told of his examination of the man at different times and stated that in his opinion he was insane.

Dr. John W. Gordon followed with similar testimony.

Andrew Pintkowski, of Clearfield, Supt. George H. Baumer, 'Squire Kirschner and Lysle Fauzey of Tyler, Sheriff McCloskey and County Detective Jefffries were called in turn and the testimony of each and every witness corroborated the testimony of the doctors as the Yuhosz's mental condition and actions.

Fauzey was employed in the boiler room at the coke plant and it was to him Yuhosz first told the story of his having killed "the devil," as he styled his victim. Fauzey said he paid no attention to the man the first time he came in but when he had gone out and returned a half hour later and repeated the story, he noticed the blood on his clothes and he then notified Supt. Baumer and an investigation disclosed the crime. Yuhosz was placed upon the stand and given a grilling by District Attorney Welch. He appeared to be rational on almost every proposition advanced until the killing was mentioned, when his delusions seized him and he rambled incoherently in his broken Slavish tongue about being God and having the right to kill the devil.

After hearing the evidence the court gave the jury some instructions regarding their duty in the matter and they retired to the jury room. They deliberated briefly and shortly returned a verdict declaring they found Mike Yuhosz to be of unsound mind. Yuhosz was committed by Judge Bell to the hospital for the criminal insane located at Fairview, Pa., this afternoon.

Sighs of relief could be heard as the President put his flourish on the revenue bill, widow's pension bill, Senators Hoke Smith and Bryan, chief opponents of the bill smiled with a rueful grin The President arose this morning at five o'clock after being up until midnight cleaning up odds and ends at the White House which had to be completed before the adjournment of Congress.

FATHER PENN WAKES UP

Philadelphia, Sept. 9.—Bill Penn has just discovered somebody "put one over" on him. For sometime past that amiable gentleman has been paying the expense of pumping water out of excavations dug by the telephone companies. When the work was not done promptly the companies howled. Like the pitcher that went to the well—the companies howled once too often. An examination of the franchise disclosed that the city is in no way compelled to stand this expense and after today it wont.

TOWANDA SCHOOL BUILDING.

Towanda, Sept. 8.—Because of the statewide infantile paralysis quarantine, Towanda's new high school and grade building will not be placed in use formally for a couple of weeks. PENSIONS WILL BE LARGER FOR M. E. PASTORS

Plan is to Give them Twenty Dollars for Each Year of Service as Minister

PRESENT WAGE NOT UNIFORM

Huntingdon, Pa., Sept. 9.—(By United Press)—"The present state of the aged and infirmed preacher is deplorable, especially when he is retired from the active ministry and his salary cut off," said the Rev. John T. B. Smith, Chicago, of the Board of Conference claimants of the Methodist Episcopal church, who is in the city, visiting and consulting with the Rev. C. W. Karns, D. D., Secretary of the annuity fund of the Central Pennsylvania conference.

"Practically all the Protestant churches are making strenuous efforts to provide pensions for the worn-our preachers and adequate care of the widows and dependent orphans of deceased ministers. The average salary of the Protestant preachers is barely $1000. It is continually asked "What is the average salary of an American minister, and why he cannot save sufficient money to take care of himself and family in his old age?" The average salaries in the various denominations are as follows:

"Unitarian $1221; Protestant Episcopal, $994; Universalist, $974; Lutheran $744; Presbyterian, North, $977; Presbyterian South, $857; Methodist Episcopal, $741; Northern Baptist, $681; United Brethren, $547; Disciples, $527; Southern Baptist, $334. These salaries conclusively prove that if the preacher were to save he would rob himself and family of the necessities of life, and cripple his own efficient services as pastor and preacher. The plan of the Methodist Episcopal church is to give every retired minister $20 for every year of active service. Thus, a pastor who has had forty years of active service will receive $800. At the present time the conferences pay as they are able; some $10, some $8, some $5 and some only $3 for each year of active service.

"The Methodist Episcopal Church has a total membership of 4,233,941. It has 16,180 regular pastors, 4,186,766 Sunday school pupils, 825,823 Epworth League members. Its 30,040 churches are worth $205,759,871 and its 14,426 parsonages are valued at $34,916,539, but it has more, it has 2,750 retired ministers, 3,500 widows and over 500 orphans, dependent on the annuity and pension funds.

"The church is seeking $15,000,000 to take adequate care of these retired ministers, and the Rev. Jos. Hingeley, D. D., of Chicago, was selected to lead in this great and important work Under his splendid leadership the campaign for this annuity fund is now thoroughly organized and Central Pennsylvania Conference is seeking its part of this fund, which is $400,000, for an invested fund, which would pay the retired preachers $10 a year for each year of their effective service and the widows and orphans one-half of the same amount. For instance, forty years o factive service in Carlisle or any of the adjacent churches in this county, would mean $400, or twenty years, $200, or one-half that amount for a widow or orphan.

"The Rev. C. W. Karns, who has been chosen as field secretary of this fund with the Central Pennsylvania Conference, is giving his whole time and attention to this work. He has entered into an educational campaign in Cumberland County and throughout the conference, in which he has distributed thousands of leaflets and a special edition of the Veteran Preacher, which is published by the Board of Conference Claimants, Chicago. One of the notable features of this movement is the splendid manner in which the prominent laymen of the church are devoting their services as speakers. Over 200 laymen gave their services to this noble cause last year, and Dr. Karns has secured an efficient group of laymen to assist him throughout the campaign."

THE PUZZLING DISEASE.

The Philadelphia Record calls attention to the peculi- ties of the spread of infantile paralysis in that city the Twenty-seventh ward of West Philadelphia not a e has developed; while other sections of the city, much rrobling it, in the character of their population, have en seriously afflicted. The Ninth ward, lying in the rt of the city has been similarly exempt, but that may explained by the fact that comparatively few people ve away. The Eighth, Twelfth and Seventeenth wards, em away. The Eighth, Twelfth and Seveenteenth wards, small, both in population and area have been almost e of the disease, while in such congested districts as the cond ward has suffered severely. It must be accounted e of the oddities of this visitation that the Twenty-sec- d ward, embracing Germantown and Chestnut Hill, and e of the highest and most healthful sections of Philadel- a, reports the greatest number of cases, 52, and 14 aths. While the Nineteenth ward, densely populated d with few open breathing spaces, has had no deaths d but five cases. It is clear that there are many puz- g features about this strange disease that medical ence has still to discover. These peculiarities cannot explained until the cause has been discovered.

IF !

Those who are complaining of the British interfer- e with American mails and American business firms ch are carrying on trade with Great Britain's enemies, who repeat the childish outcry of Berlin against Eng- h "navalism," seem to forget that if the British navy e not supreme on the seas there would be no billion- r exports going abroad which the Democrats claim e to their superior fiscal policies and not to the acci- of the war. If the German navy was anywhere near ge as the Anglo-French fleet combined and the e of squadrons of both fleets operating on the high loomed large, not only the German shipping but the ing of all other nations would take to cover and unication from these shores abroad would be a mere ce of desperation. At present British "navalism" is ing open the trade routes for American commerce to ree that the very Democrats who have passed a re- measure cannot refrain from pointing to with as the one source of a prosperity which is their cam- n stock in trade. To threaten this trade is like killing oose that laid the golden egg, but the brotherhoods ng already thrown over this simile, the Democratic y naturally follows suit and is ready to make faces e nation whose ships and fleet have saved America the greatest trade blockade and consequent financial that we could possibly experience.—Public Ledger.

Harrisburg, Sept. 9.—Dr. Joseph Kalbfus, state game protector says wise action by the next legislature can reduce the present Digest of Games, Fish and Forestry laws to a few pages. Its present size of 350 pages makes it most too bulks for a "pocket volume." Dr. Kalbfus already has distributed 3,000 copies of the proposed codification of the game laws. Fish Commissioner Buller is preparing a first code. Kalbfus, who edits the digest, says the only thing necessary to reducing the bulk is proper codification of all laws which go into it.

Today's Geographic Study of The Great European War Zone

Hermannstadt, against which the new enemy of the Central Powers, the Roumanians, inaugurated a campaign simultaneously with their declaration of hostilities, is the subject of today's war geography bulletin issued by the National Geographic society:

"The former capital of Transylvania like the present capital, Kronstadt has four names—Hermannstadt (German), Nagyszeben (Hungarian), Sibiiu (Roumanian) and Cibbinium (Roman). Its distinction as the seat of government of the adjacent mountainous province having been taken from it, it is now the administrative center of the county of Hermannstadt familiarly known as Saxon Land because it is supposed to have been colonized by Germans under the leadership of Germany, a citizen of Nuremberg who arrived in this attractive locality sometime during the twelfth century.

"The city, which boasts a population of more than 30,000 three-fifths of whom are Saxons and a fourth are Roumanians, clings to a hillside in the valley of the River Cibin, a tributary of the Alt (Aluta) which in turn is one of the important affluents of the Danube, far to the south.

"In medieval days the last of the native Magyar monarchs accorded the city many special privileges and its commerce with the East flourished, despite the fact that during the 15th and 16th centuries it was on several occasions besieged by Turkish forces on their way through Hungary to threaten Vienna. In these days it boasted strong fortifications of which there remain today only a few fragments of walls and one or two towers standing near the municipal theater building. The center of the old town, the main business section, is known as the Grosser Ring, and in this quarter stands one of the most interesting buildings of the city, the Rathaus, once the fortified dwelling of a patrician but purchased during the middle ages by the citizens and converted into a town hall. It contains the archives of the 'Saxon Nation.' Another impressive structure is the rukenthal palace, built by Baron Brukenthal, governor of Transylvania from 1777 to 1787. It contains a large art collection and a magnificent library of more than 100,000 volumes together with many valuable manuscripts. The ecclesiastical buildings worthy of consideration are: the Protestant church of the 14th-16th century, noted for a magnificent cup-shaped fount cast by Meister Leonhardus in 1438; the 'New church,' which belies its name in that it is nearly 500 years old; the Chapel by Elizabeth Tor, with its massive crucifix carved from a singleblockofstone, and the Greek-Oriental cathedral, built only 20 years ago.

"Hermannstadt's industrial activities are numerous and varied, its manufactures including soaps, candles, hats, boots, linen woolen and leather goods, horn combs, gunpowder, ropes and machinery. In peace times it is garrisoned by about 3,500 soldiers, being the headquarters of the 12th Army Corps. As an adjunct of its martial life there is a military school here, and among the popular places of recreation are the military swimming baths.

"The nearest point on the Roumanian border lies due south of Hermannstadt at the Rotenturm Pass, about 14 miles distant in an airline. Kronstadt is to the east, a distance of 70 miles."

Messrs. Bainer & Broome are rushing things out of their paint mine along Anderson creek. One or two cars per day is now the output, and arrangements are being made to increase to double the present capacity. The ore is a natural oxide of iron, and when mixed with some other chemicals makes a fine and lasting paint for outside work. The people to whom they are shipping the ore are willing to take all and any amount that can be shipped up to ten cars a day. It is more than likely that more mines will be opened up this fall or early in the spring, as it is said that the hills all along the creek contain ore similar to that taken out by the firm of Balner and Broome, of Brookville.

John Malloy, of DuBois, visited his sister, Mrs. Harry Bilger this week. It has been six years since the brother and sister met and the reunion was a glad one.

A party from Luthersburg in an automobile careened into a horse and buggy at the Walnut street bridge last evening about dusk with the result of almost smashing the vehicle, bruising the horse and almost tearing the harness to pieces. No one was injured, and the occupants of the car agreed to make good and pay all damages, and they were not detained.

Walter Fullerton and Joseph Vesco have started for a two week's visit to Toronto, Canada, and other cities in the English territory.

Rev. J. H. Reedy, of Tulsa Oklahoma, was registered at the Park House the other day. He gave out the information that his people used to live in Curwensville and left the town when he was a mere youngster, some sixty years or more ago. If he remembered anything about the town in its pre-historic age, he must have been awfully surprised that he could not locate old landmarks.

WARM FIGHT IN WASHINGTON.

Seattle, Wash., Sept. 8.—The primary election campaign in Washington which has only two more days to run, has been one of the most strenuous in years, and it is almost impossible to forecast the results.

The most interesting contest is that for the Republican nomination for United States senator, in which Miles Poindexter, as a candidate for a second term, is opposed by William E. Humphrey who is serving his sixth term in the national house of representatives. There are other aspirants for the Republican senatorial nomination, but it is generally conceded that the real contest is between Poindexter and Humphrey. Dr. C. E. Bryan appears to have the lead in the race for the Democratic nomination for senator.

Six contestants are entered in the free-for-all race for the Republican nomination for governor. Governor Ernest Lister, whose term will expire next January, expects to be renominated as the head of the Democratic state ticket, although he is not without opposition. Contests are on in virtually all of the congressional districts.

One of the most interesting features of the campaign are the candidacies of women for several of the highest offices to be filled at the November election. Mrs. John B. Allen of Seattle, widow of the first United States senator from Washington, aspires to the Republican nomination for the seat once held by her husband. Mrs. Frances Axtell of Bellingham is seeking the Progressive nomination for Congress in the Second district. Women candidates are also in the field for nomination as superintendent of public instruction.

MRS. RUSSELL SAGE IS 88.

New York, Sept. 8.—Messages of greeting from friends throughout the country and from many institutions which have benefitted by her generosity, poured in today upon Mrs. Russell Sage, to remind her that this was the eighty-eighth anniversary of her birth. Mrs. Sage is reported to be in good health, devoting a considerable part of each day as she has for years past, to the business connected with her vast schemes of charity and philanthropy. In accordance with her custom, it has passed the anniversary at her home at Lawrence, L. I. It is the cottage in which Mr. Sage died, and is one of the favorite houses maintained by Mrs. Sage.

WHEN YOU WAKE UP DRINK GLASS OF HOT WATER

Wash the poisons and toxins from system before putting more food into stomach.

Says inside-bathing makes anyone look and feel clean, sweet and refreshed.

Wash yourself on the inside before breakfast like you do on the outside. This is vastly more important because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, causing illness, while the bowel pores do.

For every ounce of food and drink taken into the stomach, nearly an ounce of waste material is not eliminated day by day it quickly ferments and generates poisons, gases and toxins which are absorbed or sucked into the blood stream, through the lymph ducts which should suck only nourishment to sustain the body.

A splendid health measure is to drink, before breakfast each day, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it which is a harmless way to wash these poisons, gases and toxins from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels; thus cleansing, sweetening and freshening the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

A quarter pound of limestone phosphate costs but very little at the drug store but is sufficient to make anyone an enthusiast on inside-bathing. Men and women who are accustomed to wake up with a dull, aching head or have furred tongue, bad taste, nasty breath, sallow complexion, other who have bilious attacks, acid stomach or constipation are assured of pronounced improvement in both health and appearance shortly.

CALLED TO COLORS AS MAN "HUSBAND" FOUND TO BE WOMAN WITH A TRAGEDY

(United Press Staff Correspondent)

London, Aug. 20.—(By Mail)—Called to the colors as a man, a woman who had masqueraded in male attire and pretended to be married to another woman so her husband could not find her, was forced to acknowledge her sex before the army medical board today.

Unhappily married 6 years ago and her two babies dead, this woman left her husband and, so she could get work, masqueraded as a man and "married" her boarding house keeper's daughter.

The circumstances of the "marriage" were astounding.

Having a real man sweetheart who had betrayed and deserted her, the landlady's daughter faced real trouble. She told the man-woman, who had confessed the disguise to her and her mother. So they were "married" and took a cottage in London. When the baby was born none of the neighbors suspected but that the "husband" was its father.

The "family" lived this way for four years and had it not been for the Conscription act, the ruse might never have been discovered. Her plea for exemption from service on the ground of "indispensability" having failed and, facing a medical examination by the officials, she confessed.

Women's High Shoes For Fall Wear

There isn't a prettier shoe made than those that are produced by the makers from whom we get our women's shoes. The styles for fall are unusually neat and attractive and we pride ourselves in the fact that our selections for the coming autumnal season are far above the average.

The trend of the shoe designers has been toward a comfortable fitting shoe yet they have carried style and neatness into their designs.

Women's High Shoes at $4.

These have patent leather vamp with dull kid tops; the tops are a little over seven inches high; they have the Louis heel, plain toe and this style comes in lace only.

Misses' and Women's Military Boot at $3.50.

We've heard so much about military operations and the makers seem to have struck a popular note in the planning of this shoe. They are made of dull kid, plain toe with military heel and are in button only.

English Walking Shoe at $3.50.

Here's the most comfortable shoe for street wear that has come out this season—it has style, too. Has a stitched top and fancy punched trimmings along the lace strip, military heel and makes walking easier, and altogether is one of the best numbers at the price.

A 8-inch Top Shoe That Has "Fashion" in Every Line

This is the shoe for the woman that wants to be right on the dot with the prevailing shoe mode. The eight inch top with its fancy foxing adds a style tone to this shoe. Is made of dull kid throughout, with plain toe and Louis heel. Comes in lace only

Lots of Low-Shoe Bargains Yet.

The stock is not as complete as it was but for the thrifty buyer there is a host of good values that will save money for you. Some of these oxfords would cost us as much as we are now offering them to you if we had to go into the market to replace them today. Here's your chance to get some low shoes to finish out this season and be ready for early next spring.

SPANNELL TRIAL THIS MONTH.

Alpine, Texas., Sept. 8.—Preparations are nearing completion for the Harry Spannell trial, which is docketed to take place this month at the fall term of court convening here. The trial promises to be one of the most notable ever held in this section of the state. Spannell is under indictment for first degree murder, growing out of the killing of Lieut. Col. M. O. Butler, U. S. A., and Mrs. Spannell, wife of the indicted man. The two victims of the tragedy were shot and killed while riding with Spannell on the streets of Alpine early in July. Jealousy is the motive believed to have been responsible for the double killing. Spannell was the proprietor of a local hotel where Lieut. Col. Butler and Mrs. Butler were guests. The two families were on terms of intimate friendship. A mililtary investigation after the tragedy completely cleared the name of the dead officer. Spannell, who is confined in jail in El Paso, has steadfastly refused to make any statement concerning his case. It is believed that a plea of temporary insanity will be offered in his defense.

RECALL LADY ELGIN DISASTER

Milwaukee, Wis., Sept. 8.—Some of the older residents of Milwaukee, including several of the survivors of the disaster, recalled today that this was the fifty-sixth anniversary of the wreck of the steamboat Lady Elgin, one of the most notable catastrophes in the history of navigation on the Great Lakes. More than three hundred persons were drowned when the vessel sank in Lake Michigan, after being run down by the schooner Augusta ten miles off the shore of Winnetka, Ill. The steamboat was on its way back to Milwaukee from Chicago with a big load of excursionists. Nearly all the victims were residents of Milwaukee or other parts of Wisconsin.

RECIPE TO CLEAR A PIMPLY SKIN

Pimples are Impurities Seeking an Outlet Through Skin Pores

Pimples, sores and boils usually result from toxins, poisons and impurities which are generated in the bowels and then absorbed into the blood through the very ducts which should absorb only nourishment to sustain the body.

It is the function of the kidneys to filter impurities from the blood and cast them out in the form of urine, but in many instances the bowels create more toxins and impurities than the kidneys can eliminate, then the blood uses the skin pores as the next best means of getting rid of these impurities which often break out all over the skin in the form of pimples.

The surest way to clear the skin of these eruptions, says a noted authority, is to get from any pharmacy about four ounces of Jad Salts and take a tablespoonful in a glass of hot water each morning before breakfast for one week. This will prevent the formation of toxins in the bowels. It also stimulates the kidneys to normal activity, thus coaxing them to filter the blood of impurities and clearing the skin of pimples.

Jad Salts is inexpensive harmless and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia. Here you have a pleasant, effervescent drink which usually makes pimples disappear; cleanses the blood and is excellent for the kidneys as well.

New York, Sept. 8.—(By United Press)—Thousands of men and women teachers in schools in New York had to report for duty and go to work today even though there is no school, on account of the infantile paralysis epidemic. The time of the teachers will be taken up by conferences and lectures on several new laws and systems of teaching that go into effect in New York schools this year. Many teachers have an indefinite idea their new duties.

Fashion Hints By Margaret Mason

(Written for the United Press)

In Bahia, Brazil
The fashions are nil.
Each wears what she will
And it's "comme il faut"still.
Some beads and a shawl
Are quite jaunty withal;
And a smile's very nice
For they never have ice.

Bahia, Brazil, Aug 8.—(By Mail to New York—There are 365 churches in Brazil and it looks like some of the Bahia belles number their skirts by the sacred edifices. Paris and New York have nothing on Bahia when it comes to that "hoops, my dear" effect.

The women seem to run to skirts, whereas the men just run after them.

This bouffant nether effect, topped with a very nifty little combing jacket and a gayly hued shawl draped carelessly over the left shoulder is considered a toilette de luxe in Bahia.

The styles are a bit extreme in this Brazilian port, however. Where some petticoats seem numberless, yet again some seem to number less than nothing. Their motto seems to be "If you must do it, go the limit." If you must skirt the proprieties do a good job and call it a dozen.

If you must wear a hat, wear a HAT. The Bahian bonnet certainly makes our alleged picture or garden hat or our erstwhile Merry Widow look like a pill box.

Even in motoring, these huge straw or sihrred chiffon hats are vaunted and flaunted.

On the other hand, or rather, head, a bandanna suffices, or the week's wash or the family firewood. I even saw one toting a neatly balanced coffin.

'Twould seem that everything goes to the head in Bahia—even the fauna.

A chic and very popular effect in an afternoon hat is an osier basket heaped high with green bananas. Where have we anything on the Bahian belles with our fruit trimmed chapeaux of this summer I'd like to know?

The fruit woman on the corner, with her fruit basket piled high with mangoes, pineapples and oranges knows not the terrors of a milliner's bill. She deftly hoists her stock in trade and in basket to the top of her coiffure and moves on to the next stand, or rather, squat.

The color line is drawn neither in fashions nor in families in Bahia. Out of a population of about 200,000, about 150,00 are fast black and the rest a bit shady. They seem especially adapted to mourning effects and even the babies are matched up with sable garments at the slightest bereavement.

For the short trousered and short skirted, young socks are quite the rage and a neat and original touch is obtained by wearing the Boston garter in the open.

The scented and gold tipped cigarettes of our effete New York and London Lady Nicotines are spurned in Bahia. Here again their motto prevails. If you must smoke, smoke a real smoke. Hence, short black cigars and fat black pipes are smoked by the smoked sirens of Bahia.

As for us U. S. maids as we took launch back to the good ship Verdi, most of us were wearing mormaset fur in the rough—so very rough indeed that this morning we were wearing marmoset bites. These tiny little chattering monkeys are exterminited as pests in Bahia or else sold to guileless tourists for a dollar apiece. The tourists all bite and so do the marmosets.

Thus do ye bear away the mark of Bahia simply by carrying Bahian monkey business on board.

DRY SPECIAL ON ITS WAY.

Chicago, Ill., Sept. 8.—The most prominent feature of the most aggresive national campaign ever waged by the Prohibition party was launched in Chicago today, when the "prohibition special," carrying J. Frank Hanly the presidential candidate, and Dr. Ira Landrith, candidate for vice president, started on a tour that will cover the country from end to end. The wheels of the "dry" special will keep moving until the night before the national election. The trip is expected to reach 600 cities and towns and the cost is estimated at around $40,000. The train will proceed first to the Pacific Coast, then sweep back across the continent to the eastern states, and return to the middle west. The swing back east will probably come the first of October and the tour will close at some point in Indiana on the night of November 6.

Besides the national candidates, the train is to carry Oliver W. Stewart, chairman of the national campaign committee; Daniel A. Poling of Boston, associate president of the United Society of Christian Endeavor; several women speakers of national reputation, state chairmen and candidates and prominent Prohibitionists who are to join the party en route.

NEW DANISH RIGSDAG TO MEET TO DISCUSS THE ISLAND SALE TO U. S.

Copenhagen, Sept. 8.—It is announced that the new Danish Rigsdag is to meet November 1 to discuss the proposed sale of the Danish West Indes to the United States for 25 million dollars.

The Rigsdag is the Danish congress. The house of representatives is called the Folkething. It will recruit new members at an election in October. The senate is called the landsthing. Election to membership thereln will be held about the same time.

Although there has been some argument as to the price to be given for the islands and some hints of pressure by the United States having been brought to bear upon Denmark to force the sale of the islands, it is not expected that there will be any opposition to the sale's completion.

HOME OF AVERAGE MAN.

"But America is not simply a land for the man of special talent or of distinguished aptitude. This is the home of the average man, the ordinary man who is doing his best, whatever, by talent or aptitude and in our large industrial occupations where thousands are gathered together in one service, we want a recognition of human brotherhood in providing for the welfare of those who make the wealth of this great country.

"We want workingmen to be safeguarded from every injury that can be prevented. We want the health of the workingmen looked after; every means provided which conduces to the proper standpoint of living; every means provided for proper recreation; appropriate means for education, for vocational training. In short the workingman who is on the job and expects to continue in that job ought to feel that he is doing something worth while for a community that appreciates it and gives him a fair chance to lead a happy and decent life.—From Mr. Hughes' speech at Detroit.

ON THE SCREEN

"THE MISLEADING LADY."

This powerful drama of the Essanay film corporation, featuring Henry Walthall and Edna Mayo of "Birth of a Nation" fame is one of the strongest that this film producing company has featured during its existance. You all remember "The Birth of a Nation" and the grip that the actors took on the public with their thrilling portrayal of the characters of the scenario. They are just as strong in "The Misleading Lady."

In "The Misleading Lady," a story of primitive passions, of cave methods, a young girl, portrayed by Edna Mayo, leads a man, enacted by the incomparable Henry Walthall, to bare his love for her before a company of jesting friends. Enraged, he kidnaps her; takes her to a mountain lodge and chains her to the floor.

He domineers over her; browbeats her and makes life on continual entirety of misery. This sort of treatment causes her to hate the man but she is awed by his overpowering mastery. The reckless daring of his methods, his brute force employed to attain his ends win her admiration.

One day goaded by the unbroken string of deliberate taunts she fells him to the floor with the telephone. When she realizes what she has done in arouses in her the woman instinst; the mothering love for the helpless comes into play.

This great man-child, stretched apparently lifeless at her feet is hers to take care of and from the realization of her position a great love is born.

Doubtless this is one of the most thrilling dramas that has ever been offered to the theatre going public of Clearfield and will be shown at the Globe tonight.

"BOBBIE OF THE BALLET"

Bobbie Brent is a chorus girl who supports her invalid mother and her little brother and sister. Jack Stimson, just out of college, is lavishing his inheritance on Velma Vrooman, leading woman of the company in which Bobbie is employed. Young Stimson meets Bobbie and becomes interested in her, much to the disappointment of Velma.

Stimson's mother, is a settlement worker. In her meanderings among tenement dwellings, she arrives at Bobbie's home, discovers the dying mother with her two children. When her mother suddenly dies, Bobbie removes the children to another tenement, adopts for herself the guise of a widow, that she may keep her little brother and sister under her own protection.

Mrs. Stimson discovers that Bobbie is known in her new quarters as a widow with two children, and having also discovered her son's attachment for Bobbie, discloses to him what she considers to be the chorus girl's deceit. Straightway he terminates the friendship between Bobbie and himself.

Matters fare badly with Bobbie and her two dependents and but for the assistance surreptitiously rendered by Hook Hoover, a mild sort of a criminal who has found refuge from the police by one day dropping in Bobbie's "apartment" through the skylight, the two children might have starved or else Bobbie would have been required to forego the promise made to her dying mother.

Velma Vrooman in revenge sets a trap for Bobbie. Under pretense of securing for her an engagement, Bobbie is instructed to call at Velma's home, where the manager of Velma's company likewise appears. Velma makes an excuse and meets young Stimson to partake of one of their customary banquets. Alone in Velma's apartment with the theatrical villain, Bobbie is compelled to resist his forced attentions.

While at dinner with Stimson, Velma cannot refrain from taunting him that Bobbie is at her home alone with Velmas' theatrical manager. Stimson is suspicious and goes at once to Velmas' apartment's, arriving there in time to rescue the girl.

The noise of the quarrel between Stimson and the theatrical manager reaches the street and the police break in, arresting both men together with Bobbie. Subsequent developments disclose the fact that Bobbie is protector of her little brother and sister and the court orders that the children shall be turned over to Mrs. Stimson's society of settlement workers and that Bobbie shall go to a reform school

The losing incidents of "Bobbie of the Ballet," which will be exhibited at the Opera house tomorrow evening discloses how Hook Hooker rescues Bobbie from the reform school, after which young Stimson obtains a marriage license and they live happily ever after

Political Jottings

Mr. McCormick follows the same method in claiming credit for legislation he does in his predictions. He includes several acts of the Taft Administration.

The Democratic press is convinced that it is the duty of Mr. Hughes to say something that will hurt his chance of being elected.

President Wilson in his acceptance speech may reply to Mr. Hughes' charges, but he will not answer them. That is an entirely different matter.

It is reported from Washington that the Administration will ignore most of Mr. Hughes' charges. That is very much the easiest way for it to answer them.

Governor Hughes announces in one of his speeches that he is a constructionist. But we are willing to admit that so far as Democratic policies are concerned he is a destructionist.

Tammany leader Charles F. Murphy announces that he will retire after the campaign. It is believed that many other more or less distinguished Democrats will follow his example.

Grover Cleveland was the last Democratic President. He was also the last President to issue bonds to secure money to defray the running expenses of the government. But Wilson will tie him in this.

President Wilson will be notified of the Democratic nomination at Shadow Lawn This seems a most appropriate place for letting him know that he will shortly have to give up his place in the sun.

President Wilson will not make any speaking dates we are told but only separate engagements for addresses, considering a "speaking tour' undignified. "Too proud to fight"

Pity the Man Who Doesn't Advertise!

By Brown.

"I have an established business. I don't require advertising."

That is the answer of some self satisfied man to a request for advertising. Meanwhile his progressive neighbor is using printer's ink lavishly.

The result is obvious. It's only a question of time. The self satisfied business man soon finds his trade disappearing. His progressive neighbor goes ahead with leaps and bounds. Every business, no matter how firmly established, needs advertising. If it isn't advertised it soon will be in a rut. Don't get in a rut. Advertise.

Tyler Murderer Is Found Insane--Will Be Sent To Farview

SLAV CLAIMS HE HAD RIGHT TO KILL

The inquiry into the mental condition of Mike Yuhosz, the Tyler murderer, was held before Judge Bell this morning. The jury impaneled by Sheriff McCloskey was called into the box at 10 o'clock and Yuhosz's attorney W. A. Hagerty opened the case by reciting to the jurymen the circumstances surrounding the killing and stated that they would endeavor to show that Yuhosz was of unsound mind at the time of said killing and was still a lunatic.

Dr. S. C. Stewart was then sworn and told of his examination of the man at different times and stated that in his opinion he was insane.

Dr. John W. Gordon followed with similar testimony.

Andrew Pintkowski, of Clearfield, Supt. George H. Baumer, 'Squire Kirschner and Lysle Fauzey of Tyler, Sheriff McCloskey and County Detective Jefffries were called in turn and the testimony of each and every witness corroborated the testimony of the doctors as the Yuhosz's mental condition and actions.

Fauzey was employed in the boiler room at the coke plant and it was to him Yuhosz first told the story of his having killed "the devil," as he styled his victim. Fauzey said he paid no attention to the man the first time he came in but when he had gone out and returned a half hour later and repeated the story, he noticed the blood on his clothes and he then notified Supt. Baumer and an investigation disclosed the crime. Yuhosz was placed upon the stand and given a grilling by District Attorney Welch. He appeared to be rational on almost every proposition advanced until the killing was mentioned, when his delusions seized him and he rambled incoherently in his broken Slavish tongue about being God and having the right to kill the devil.

After hearing the evidence the court gave the jury some instructions regarding their duty in the matter and they retired to the jury room. They deliberated briefly and shortly returned a verdict declaring they found Mike Yuhosz to be of unsound mind. Yuhosz was committed by Judge Bell to the hospital for the criminal insane located at Fairview, Pa., this afternoon.

PRESIDENT IS WELL PLEASED WITH CONGRESS

SIGNS THREE IMPORTANT BILLS

Washington, Sept.8 .—(By United Press)President Wilson in a formal statement today complimented the recent session of congress just closed. At the same time he expressed his regret that it had not had time to fully pass the railroad dispute legislation proposed and declared that he hoped his expectations with regard to the entire program would be finished at the next session.

"It has been good work," with these words the President affixed his signature to the revenue bill and indicated to the leaders of both the house and senate that he was well pleased with the session just closed. Something of a ceremony marked the signing of the last bills. There were present several members of the cabinet including Secretaries Lansing, Baker and Daniels, Speaker Clark as well as a number of the members of both house and senate. Sighs of relief could be heard as the President put his flourish on the revenue bill, widow's pension bill, Senators Hoke Smith and Bryan, chief opponents of the bill smiled with a rueful grin The President arose this morning at five o'clock after being up until midnight cleaning up odds and ends at the White House which had to be completed before the adjournment of Congress.

FATHER PENN WAKES UP

Philadelphia, Sept. 9.—Bill Penn has just discovered somebody "put one over" on him. For sometime past that amiable gentleman has been paying the expense of pumping water out of excavations dug by the telephone companies. When the work was not done promptly the companies howled. An examination of the franchise disclosed that the city is in no way compelled to stand this expense and after today it wont.

PENSIONS WILL BE LARGER FOR M. E. PASTORS

Plan is to Give them Twenty Dollars for Each Year of Service as Minister

PRESENT WAGE NOT UNIFORM

Huntingdon, Pa., Sept. 9.—(By United Press)—"The present state of the aged and infirmed preacher is deplorable, especially when he is retired from the active ministry and his salary cut off," said the Rev. John T. B. Smith, Chicago, of the Board of Conference claimants of the Methodist Episcopal church, who is in the city, visiting and consulting with the Rev. C. W. Karns, D. D., Secretary of the annuity fund of the Central Pennsylvania conference.

"Practically all the Protestant churches are making strenuous efforts to provide pensions for the worn-our preachers and adequate care of the widows and dependent orphans of deceased ministers. The average salary of the Protestant preachers is barely $1000. It is continually asked "What is the average salary of an American minister, and why he cannot save sufficient money to take care of himself and family in his old age?" The average salaries in the various denominations are as follows:

"Unitarian $1221; Protestant Episcopal, $994; Universalist, $974; Lutheran $744; Presbyterian, North, $977; Presbyterian South, $857; Methodist Episcopal, $741; Northern Baptist, $681; United Brethren, $547; Disciples, $527; Southern Baptist, $334. These salaries conclusively prove that if the preacher were to save he would rob himself and family of the necessities of life, and cripple his own efficient services as pastor and preacher. The plan of the Methodist Episcopal church is to give every retired minister $20 for every year of active service. Thus, a pastor who has had forty years of active service will receive $800. At the present time the conferences pay as they are able; some $10, some $8, some $5 and some only $3 for each year of active service.

"The Methodist Episcopal Church has a total membership of 4,233,941. It has 16,180 regular pastors, 4,186,766 Sunday school pupils, 825,823 Epworth League members. Its 30,040 churches are worth $205,759,871 and its 14,426 parsonages are valued at $34,916,539, but it has more, it has 2,750 retired ministers, 3,500 widows and over 500 orphans, dependent on the annuity and pension funds.

"The church is seeking $15,000,000 to take adequate care of these retired ministers, and the Rev. Jos. Hingeley, D. D., of Chicago, was selected to lead in this great and important work Under his splendid leadership the campaign for this annuity fund is now thoroughly organized and Central Pennsylvania Conference is seeking its part of this fund, which is $400,000, for an invested fund, which would pay the retired preachers $10 a year for each year of their effective service and the widows and orphans one-half of the same amount. For instance, forty years o factive service in Carlisle or any of the adjacent churches in this county, would mean $400, or twenty years, $200, or one-half that amount for a widow or orphan.

"The Rev. C. W. Karns, who has been chosen as field secretary of this fund with the Central Pennsylvania Conference, is giving his whole time and attention to this work. He has entered into an educational campaign in Cumberland County and throughout the conference, in which he has distributed thousands of leaflets and a special edition of the Veteran Preacher, which is published by the Board of Conference Claimants, Chicago. One of the notable features of this movement is the splendid manner in which the prominent laymen of the church are devoting their services as speakers. Over 200 laymen gave their services to this noble cause last year, and Dr. Karns has secured an efficient group of laymen to assist him throughout the campaign."

The nominee's speeches are proving satisfactory to Maine Republican leaders. The governor's plans for today are just as complete as those of yesterday.

THE PUZZLING DISEASE.

The Philadelphia Record calls attention to the peculi- ties of the spread of infantile paralysis in that city the Twenty-seventh ward of West Philadelphia not a e has developed; while other sections of the city, much rrobling it in the character of their population, have en seriously afflicted. The Ninth ward, lying in the rt of the city has been similarly exempt, but that may explained by the fact that comparatively few people ve away. The Eighth, Twelfth and Seventeenth wards, em away. The Eighth, Twelfth and Seveenteenth wards, small, both in population and area have been almost e of the disease, while in such congested districts as the cond ward has suffered severely. It must be accounted e of the oddities of this visitation that the Twenty-sec- d ward, embracing Germantown and Chestnut Hill, and e of the highest and most healthful sections of Philadel- a, reports the greatest number of cases, 52, and 14 aths. While the Nineteenth ward, densely populated d with few open breathing spaces, has had no deaths d but five cases. It is clear that there are many puz- g features about this strange disease that medical ence has still to discover. These peculiarities cannot explained until the cause has been discovered.

IF !

Those who are complaining of the British interfer- e with American mails and American business firms ch are carrying on trade with Great Britain's enemies, who repeat the childish outcry of Berlin against Eng- h "navalism," seem to forget that if the British navy e not supreme on the seas there would be no billion- r exports going abroad which the Democrats claim e to their superior fiscal policies and not to the acci- of the war. If the German navy was anywhere near ge as the Anglo-French fleet combined and the e of squadrons of both fleets operating on the high loomed large, not only the German shipping but the ing of all other nations would take to cover and unication from these shores abroad would be a mere ce of desperation. At present British "navalism" is ing open the trade routes for American commerce to ree that the very Democrats who have passed a re- measure cannot refrain from pointing to with as the one source of a prosperity which is their cam- n stock in trade. To threaten this trade is like killing oose that laid the golden egg, but the brotherhoods ng already thrown over this simile, the Democratic y naturally follows suit and is ready to make faces e nation whose ships and fleet have saved America the greatest trade blockade and consequent financial that we could possibly experience.—Public Ledger.

Hermannstadt, against which the new enemy of the Central Powers, the Roumanians, inaugurated a campaign simultaneously with their declaration of hostilities, is the subject of today's war geography bulletin issued by the National Geographic society:

"The former capital of Transylvania like the present capital, Kronstadt has four names—Hermannstadt (German), Nagyszeben (Hungarian), Sibiiu (Roumanian) and Cibbinium (Roman). Its distinction as the seat of government of the adjacent mountainous province having been taken from it, it is now the administrative center of the county of Hermannstadt familiarly known as Saxon Land because it is supposed to have been colonized by Germans under the leadership of Germany, a citizen of Nuremberg who arrived in this attractive locality sometime during the twelfth century.

"The city, which boasts a population of more than 30,000 three-fifths of whom are Saxons and a fourth are Roumanians, clings to a hillside in the valley of the River Cibin, a tributary of the Alt (Aluta) which in turn is one of the important affluents of the Danube, far to the south.

"In medieval days the last of the native Magyar monarchs accorded the city many special privileges and its commerce with the East flourished, despite the fact that during the 15th and 16th centuries it was on several occasions besieged by Turkish forces on their way through Hungary to threaten Vienna. In these days it boasted strong fortifications of which there remain today only a few fragments of walls and one or two towers standing near the municipal theater building. The center of the old town, the main business section, is known as the Grosser Ring, and in this quarter stands one of the most interesting buildings of the city, the Rathaus, once the fortified dwelling of a patrician but purchased during the middle ages by the citizens and converted into a town hall. It contains the archives of the 'Saxon Nation.' Another impressive structure is the rukenthal palace, built by Baron Brukenthal, governor of Transylvania from 1777 to 1787. It contains a large art collection and a magnificent library of more than 100,000 volumes together with many valuable manuscripts. The ecclesiastical buildings worthy of consideration are: the Protestant church of the 14th-16th century, noted for a magnificent cup-shaped fount cast by Meister Leonhardus in 1438; the 'New church,' which belies its name in that it is nearly 500 years old; the Chapel by Elizabeth Tor, with its massive crucifix carved from a singleblockofstone, and the Greek-Oriental cathedral, built only 20 years ago.

"Hermannstadt's industrial activities are numerous and varied, its manufactures including soaps, candles, hats, boots, linen woolen and leather goods, horn combs, gunpowder, ropes and machinery. In peace times it is garrisoned by about 3,500 soldiers, being the headquarters of the 12th Army Corps. As an adjunct of its martial life there is a military school here, and among the popular places of recreation are the military swimming baths.

"The nearest point on the Roumanian border lies due south of Hermannstadt at the Rotenturm Pass, about 14 miles distant in an airline. Kronstadt is to the east, a distance of 70 miles."

WHEN YOU WAKE UP DRINK GLASS OF HOT WATER

Wash the poisons and toxins from system before putting more food into stomach.

Says inside-bathing makes anyone look and feel clean, sweet and refreshed.

Wash yourself on the inside before breakfast like you do on the outside. This is vastly more important because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, causing illness, while the bowel pores do.

For every ounce of food and drink taken into the stomach, nearly an ounce of waste material is not eliminated day by day it quickly ferments and generates poisons, gases and toxins which are absorbed or sucked into the blood stream, through the lymph ducts which should suck only nourishment to sustain the body.

A splendid health measure is to drink, before breakfast each day, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it which is a harmless way to wash these poisons, gases and toxins from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels; thus cleansing, sweetening and freshening the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

A quarter pound of limestone phosphate costs but very little at the drug store but is sufficient to make anyone an enthusiast on inside-bathing. Men and women who are accustomed to wake up with a dull, aching head or have furred tongue, bad taste, nasty breath, sallow complexion, other who have bilious attacks, acid stomach or constipation are assured of pronounced improvement in both health and appearance shortly.

CALLED TO COLORS AS MAN "HUSBAND" FOUND TO BE WOMAN WITH A TRAGEDY

(United Press Staff Correspondent)

London, Aug. 20.—(By Mail)—Called to the colors as a man, a woman who had masqueraded in male attire and pretended to be married to another woman so her husband could not find her, was forced to acknowledge her sex before the army medical board today.

Unhappily married 6 years ago and her two babies dead, this woman left her husband and, so she could get work, masqueraded as a man and "married" her boarding house keeper's daughter.

The circumstances of the "marriage" were astounding.

Having a real man sweetheart who had betrayed and deserted her, the landlady's daughter faced real trouble. She told the man-woman, who had confessed the disguise to her and her mother. So they were "married" and took a cottage in London. When the baby was born none of the neighbors suspected but that the "husband" was its father.

The "family" lived this way for four years and had it not been for the Conscription act, the ruse might never have been discovered. Her plea for exemption from service on the ground of "indispensability" having failed and, facing a medical examination by the officials, she confessed.

Women's High Shoes For Fall Wear

There isn't a prettier shoe made than those that are produced by the makers from whom we get our women's shoes. The styles for fall are unusually neat and attractive and we pride ourselves in the fact that our selections for the coming autumnal season are far above the average.

The trend of the shoe designers has been toward a comfortable fitting shoe yet they have carried style and neatness into their designs.

Women's High Shoes at $4.

These have patent leather vamp with dull kid tops; the tops are a little over seven inches high; they have the Louis heel, plain toe and this style comes in lace only.

Misses' and Women's Military Boot at $3.50.

We've heard so much about military operations and the makers seem to have struck a popular note in the planning of this shoe. They are made of dull kid, plain toe with military heel and are in button only.

English Walking Shoe at $3.50.

Here's the most comfortable shoe for street wear that has come out this season—it has style, too. Has a stitched top and fancy punched trimmings along the lace strip, military heel and makes walking easier, and altogether is one of the best numbers at the price.

A 8-inch Top Shoe That Has "Fashion" in Every Line

This is the shoe for the woman that wants to be right on the dot with the prevailing shoe mode. The eight inch top with its fancy foxing adds a style tone to this shoe. Is made of dull kid throughout, with plain toe and Louis heel. Comes in lace only

Lots of Low-Shoe Bargains Yet.

Some of these oxfords would cost us as much as we are now offering them to you if we had to go into the market to replace them today. Here's your chance to get some low shoes to finish out this season and be ready for early next spring.

CURWENSVILLE NEWS

Mrs. Barrett, mother of Mrs. Manuel Marley, of Marron, is visiting at the home of her daughter on Pine street.

"The Five Club" composed of a bevy of young ladies, are enjoying a week of afternoon teas and "Hearts" at the home of each of the members. Wednesday Miss Miriam Dyer, yesterday afternoon at the home of Miss Margaret Karstetter and this afternoon will meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Bloom, were Miss Bloomer who is visiting there, will entertain.

An autoists ran into a buggy down on the state road yesterday and damaged the vehicle considerably. It cost the reckless driver $13.32 to settle. A little later the same fellow ran into Sam Norris' hay wagon and tried to butt it out of his way, with the result of injuring his machine so badly that it will cost him considerable money to have it put in condition for active service again.

P. E. Smith and family returned from State College yesterday, where they were in attendance at a wedding of a cousin of Mrs. Smith's, a Miss Mary Dougherty who was married to Frank Root, a Pittsburgh newspaper man, the ceremony taking place in the First Methodist church at that place.

Messrs. Balner & Broome are rushing things out of their paint mine along Anderson creek. One or two cars per day is now the output, and arrangements are being made to increase to double the present capacity. The ore is a natural oxide of iron, and when mixed with some other chemicals makes a fine and lasting paint for outside work. The people to whom they are shipping the ore are willing to take all and any amount that can be shipped up to ten cars a day. It is more than likely that more mines will be opened up this fall or early in the spring, as it is said that the hills all along the creek contain ore similar to that taken out by the firm of Balner and Broome, of Brookville.

John Malloy, of DuBois, visited his sister, Mrs. Harry Bilger this week. It has been six years since the brother and sister met and the reunion was a glad one.

A party from Luthersburg in an automobile careened into a horse and buggy at the Walnut street bridge last evening about dusk with the result of almost smashing the vehicle, bruising the horse and almost tearing the harness to pieces. No one was injured, and the occupants of the car agreed to make good and pay all damages, and they were not detained.

Walter Fullerton and Joseph Vesco have started for a two week's visit to Toronto, Canada, and other cities in the English territory.

Rev. J. H. Reedy, of Tulsa Oklahoma, was registered at the Park House the other day. He gave out the information that his people used to live in Curwensville and left the town when he was a mere youngster, some sixty years or more ago. If he remembered anything about the town in its pre-historic age, he must have been awfully surprised that he could not locate old landmarks.

TO MAKE THE GAME LAWS IN POCKET VOLUME

Harrisburg, Sept. 9.—Dr. Joseph Kalbfus, state game protector says wise action by the next legislature can reduce the present Digest of Games, Fish and Forestry laws to a few pages. Its present size of 350 pages makes it most too bulks for a "pocket volume." Dr. Kalbfus already has distributed 3,000 copies of the proposed codification of the game laws. Fish Commissioner Buller is preparing a first code. Kalbfus, who edits the digest, says the only thing necessary to reducing the bulk is proper codification of all laws which go into it.

BLUEBIRD DAY TOMORROW

AT THE OPERA HOUSE with Louise Lovely In "BOBBIE OF THE BALLET"

WARM FIGHT IN WASHINGTON.

Seattle, Wash., Sept. 8.—The primary election campaign in Washington which has only two more days to run, has been one of the most strenuous in years, and it is almost impossible to forecast the results.

The most interesting contest is that for the Republican nomination for United States senator, in which Miles Poindexter, as a candidate for a second term, is opposed by William E. Humphrey who is serving his sixth term in the national house of representatives. There are other aspirants for the Republican senatorial nomination, but it is generally conceded that the real contest is between Poindexter and Humphrey. Dr. C. E. Bryan appears to have the lead in the race for the Democratic nomination for senator.

Six contestants are entered in the free-for-all race for the Republican nomination for governor. Governor Ernest Lister, whose term will expire next January, expects to be renominated as the head of the Democratic state ticket, although he is not without opposition. Contests are on in virtually all of the congressional districts.

One of the most interesting features of the campaign are the candidacies of women for several of the highest offices to be filled at the November election. Mrs. John B. Allen of Seattle, widow of the first United States senator from Washington, aspires to the Republican nomination for the seat once held by her husband. Mrs. Frances Axtell of Bellingham is seeking the Progressive nomination for Congress in the Second district. Women candidates are also in the field for nomination as superintendent of public instruction.

MRS. RUSSELL SAGE IS 88.

New York, Sept. 8.—Messages of greeting from friends throughout the country and from many institutions which have benefitted by her generosity, poured in today upon Mrs. Russell Sage, to remind her that this was the eighty-eighth anniversary of her birth. Mrs. Sage is reported to be in good health, devoting a considerable part of each day as she has for years past, to the business connected with her vast schemes of charity and philanthropy. In accordance with her custom, it has passed the anniversary at her home at Lawrence, L. I. It is the cottage in which Mr. Sage died, and is one of the favorite houses maintained by Mrs. Sage.

SPANNELL TRIAL THIS MONTH.

Alpine, Texas., Sept. 8.—Preparations are nearing completion for the Harry Spannell trial, which is docketed to take place this month at the fall term of court convening here. The trial promises to be one of the most notable ever held in this section of the state. Spannell is under indictment for first degree murder, growing out of the killing of Lieut. Col. M. O. Butler, U. S. A., and Mrs. Spannell, wife of the indicted man. The two victims of the tragedy were shot and killed while riding with Spannell on the streets of Alpine early in July. Jealousy is the motive believed to have been responsible for the double killing. Spannell was the proprietor of a local hotel where Lieut. Col. Butler and Mrs. Butler were guests. The two families were on terms of intimate friendship. A mililtary investigation after the tragedy completely cleared the name of the dead officer. Spannell, who is confined in jail in El Paso, has steadfastly refused to make any statement concerning his case. It is believed that a plea of temporary insanity will be offered in his defense.

RECALL LADY ELGIN DISASTER

Milwaukee, Wis., Sept. 8.—Some of the older residents of Milwaukee, including several of the survivors of the disaster, recalled today that this was the fifty-sixth anniversary of the wreck of the steamboat Lady Elgin, one of the most notable catastrophes in the history of navigation on the Great Lakes. More than three hundred persons were drowned when the vessel sank in Lake Michigan, after being run down by the schooner Augusta ten miles off the shore of Winnetka, Ill. The steamboat was on its way back to Milwaukee from Chicago with a big load of excursionists. Nearly all the victims were residents of Milwaukee or other parts of Wisconsin.

RECIPE TO CLEAR A PIMPLY SKIN

Pimples are Impurities Seeking an Outlet Through Skin Pores

Pimples, sores and boils usually result from toxins, poisons and impurities which are generated in the bowels and then absorbed into the blood through the very ducts which should absorb only nourishment to sustain the body.

It is the function of the kidneys to filter impurities from the blood and cast them out in the form of urine, but in many instances the bowels create more toxins and impurities than the kidneys can eliminate, then the blood uses the skin pores as the next best means of getting rid of these impurities which often break out all over the skin in the form of pimples.

The surest way to clear the skin of these eruptions, says a noted authority, is to get from any pharmacy about four ounces of Jad Salts and take a tablespoonful in a glass of hot water each morning before breakfast for one week. This will prevent the formation of toxins in the bowels. It also stimulates the kidneys to normal activity, thus coaxing them to filter the blood of impurities and clearing the skin of pimples.

Jad Salts is inexpensive harmless and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia. Here you have a pleasant, effervescent drink which usually makes pimples disappear; cleanses the blood and is excellent for the kidneys as well.

NEW YORK TEACHERS MUST REPORT AND START WORK

New York, Sept. 8.—(By United Press)—Thousands of men and women teachers in schools in New York had to report for duty and go to work today even though there is no school, on account of the infantile paralysis epidemic. The time of the teachers will be taken up by conferences and lectures on several new laws and systems of teaching that go into effect in New York schools this year. Many teachers have an indefinite idea their new duties.

Fashion Hints By Margaret Mason

(Written for the United Press)

In Bahia, Brazil
The fashions are nil.
Each wears what she will
And it's "comme il faut"still.
Some beads and a shawl
Are quite jaunty withal;
And a smile's very nice
For they never have ice.

Bahia, Brazil, Aug 8.—(By Mail to New York—There are 365 churches in Brazil and it looks like some of the Bahia belles number their skirts by the sacred edifices. Paris and New York have nothing on Bahia when it comes to that "hoops, my dear" effect.

The women seem to run to skirts, whereas the men just run after them.

This bouffant nether effect, topped with a very nifty little combing jacket and a gayly hued shawl draped carelessly over the left shoulder is considered a toilette de luxe in Bahia.

The styles are a bit extreme in this Brazilian port, however. Where some petticoats seem numberless, yet again some seem to number less than nothing. Their motto seems to be "If you must do it, go the limit." If you must skirt the proprieties do a good job and call it a dozen.

If you must wear a hat, wear a HAT. The Bahian bonnet certainly makes our alleged picture or garden hat or our erstwhile Merry Widow look like a pill box.

Even in motoring, these huge straw or sihrred chiffon hats are vaunted and flaunted.

On the other hand, or rather, head, a bandanna suffices, or the week's wash or the family firewood. I even saw one toting a neatly balanced coffin.

'Twould seem that everything goes to the head in Bahia—even the fauna.

A chic and very popular effect in an afternoon hat is an osier basket heaped high with green bananas. Where have we anything on the Bahian belles with our fruit trimmed chapeaux of this summer I'd like to know?

The fruit woman on the corner, with her fruit basket piled high with mangoes, pineapples and oranges knows not the terrors of a milliner's bill. She deftly hoists her stock in trade and in basket to the top of her coiffure and moves on to the next stand, or rather, squat.

The color line is drawn neither in fashions nor in families in Bahia. Out of a population of about 200,000, about 150,00 are fast black and the rest a bit shady. They seem especially adapted to mourning effects and even the babies are matched up with sable garments at the slightest bereavement.

For the short trousered and short skirted, young socks are quite the rage and a neat and original touch is obtained by wearing the Boston garter in the open.

The scented and gold tipped cigarettes of our effete New York and London Lady Nicotines are spurned in Bahia. Here again their motto prevails. If you must smoke, smoke a real smoke. Hence, short black cigars and fat black pipes are smoked by the smoked sirens of Bahia.

As for us U. S. maids as we took launch back to the good ship Verdi, most of us were wearing mormaset fur in the rough—so very rough indeed that this morning we were wearing marmoset bites. These tiny little chattering monkeys are exterminited as pests in Bahia or else sold to guileless tourists for a dollar apiece. The tourists all bite and so do the marmosets.

Thus do ye bear away the mark of Bahia simply by carrying Bahian monkey business on board.

DRY SPECIAL ON ITS WAY.

Chicago, Ill., Sept. 8.—The most prominent feature of the most aggresive national campaign ever waged by the Prohibition party was launched in Chicago today, when the "prohibition special," carrying J. Frank Hanly the presidential candidate, and Dr. Ira Landrith, candidate for vice president, started on a tour that will cover the country from end to end. The wheels of the "dry" special will keep moving until the night before the national election. The trip is expected to reach 600 cities and towns and the cost is estimated at around $40,000. The train will proceed first to the Pacific Coast, then sweep back across the continent to the eastern states, and return to the middle west. The swing back east will probably come the first of October and the tour will close at some point in Indiana on the night of November 6.

Besides the national candidates, the train is to carry Oliver W. Stewart, chairman of the national campaign committee; Daniel A. Poling of Boston, associate president of the United Society of Christian Endeavor; several women speakers of national reputation, state chairmen and candidates and prominent Prohibitionists who are to join the party en route.

NEW DANISH RIGSDAG TO MEET TO DISCUSS THE ISLAND SALE TO U. S.

Copenhagen, Sept. 8.—It is announced that the new Danish Rigsdag is to meet November 1 to discuss the proposed sale of the Danish West Indes to the United States for 25 million dollars.

The Rigsdag is the Danish congress. The house of representatives is called the Folkething. It will recruit new members at an election in October. The senate is called the landsthing. Election to membership therein will be held about the same time.

Although there has been some argument as to the price to be given for the islands and some hints of pressure by the United States having been brought to bear upon Denmark to force the sale of the islands, it is not expected that there will be any opposition to the sale's completion.

HOME OF AVERAGE MAN.

"But America is not simply a land for the man of special talent or of distinguished aptitude. This is the home of the average man, the ordinary man who is doing his best, whatever, by talent or aptitude and in our large industrial occupations where thousands are gathered together in one service, we want a recognition of human brotherhood in providing for the welfare of those who make the wealth of this great country.

"We want workingmen to be safeguarded from every injury that can be prevented. We want the health of the workingmen looked after; every means provided which conduces to the proper standpoint of living; every means provided for proper recreation; appropriate means for education, for vocational training. In short the workingman who is on the job and expects to continue in that job ought to feel that he is doing something worth while for a community that appreciates it and gives him a fair chance to lead a happy and decent life.—From Mr. Hughes' speech at Detroit.

ON THE SCREEN

"THE MISLEADING LADY."

This powerful drama of the Essanay film corporation, featuring Henry Walthall and Edna Mayo of "Birth of a Nation" fame is one of the strongest that this film producing company has featured during its existance. You all remember "The Birth of a Nation" and the grip that the actors took on the public with their thrilling portrayal of the characters of the scenario. They are just as strong in "The Misleading Lady."

In "The Misleading Lady," a story of primitive passions, of cave methods, a young girl, portrayed by Edna Mayo, leads a man, enacted by the incomparable Henry Walthall, to bare his love for her before a company of jesting friends. Enraged, he kidnaps her; takes her to a mountain lodge and chains her to the floor.

He domineers over her; browbeats her and makes life on continual entirety of misery. This sort of treatment causes her to hate the man but she is awed by his overpowering mastery. The reckless daring of his methods, his brute force employed to attain his ends win her admiration.

One day goaded by the unbroken string of deliberate taunts she fells him to the floor with the telephone. When she realizes what she has done in arouses in her the woman instinst; the mothering love for the helpless comes into play.

This great man-child, stretched apparently lifeless at her feet is hers to take care of and from the realization of her position a great love is born.

Doubtless this is one of the most thrilling dramas that has ever been offered to the theatre going public of Clearfield and will be shown at the Globe tonight.

"BOBBIE OF THE BALLET"

Bobbie Brent is a chorus girl who supports her invalid mother and her little brother and sister. Jack Stimson, just out of college, is lavishing his inheritance on Velma Vrooman, leading woman of the company in which Bobbie is employed. Young Stimson meets Bobbie and becomes interested in her, much to the disappointment of Velma.

Stimson's mother, is a settlement worker. In her meanderings among tenement dwellings, she arrives at Bobbie's home, discovers the dying mother with her two children. When her mother suddenly dies, Bobbie removes the children to another tenement, adopts for herself the guise of a widow, that she may keep her little brother and sister under her own protection.

Mrs. Stimson discovers that Bobbie is known in her new quarters as a widow with two children, and having also discovered her son's attachment for Bobbie, discloses to him what she considers to be the chorus girl's deceit. Straightway he terminates the friendship between Bobbie and himself.

Matters fare badly with Bobbie and her two dependents and but for the assistance surreptitiously rendered by Hook Hoover, a mild sort of a criminal who has found refuge from the police by one day dropping in Bobbie's "apartment" through the skylight, the two children might have starved or else Bobbie would have been required to forego the promise made to her dying mother.

Velma Vrooman in revenge sets a trap for Bobbie. Under pretense of securing for her an engagement, Bobbie is instructed to call at Velma's home, where the manager of Velma's company likewise appears. Velma makes an excuse and meets young Stimson to partake of one of their customary banquets. Alone in Velma's apartment with the theatrical villain, Bobbie is compelled to resist his forced attentions.

While at dinner with Stimson, Velma cannot refrain from taunting him that Bobbie is at her home alone with Velmas' theatrical manager. Stimson is suspicious and goes at once to Velmas' apartment's, arriving there in time to rescue the girl.

The noise of the quarrel between Stimson and the theatrical manager reaches the street and the police break in, arresting both men together with Bobbie. Subsequent developments disclose the fact that Bobbie is protector of her little brother and sister and the court orders that the children shall be turned over to Mrs. Stimson's society of settlement workers and that Bobbie shall go to a reform school

The losing incidents of "Bobbie of the Ballet," which will be exhibited at the Opera house tomorrow evening discloses how Hook Hooker rescues Bobbie from the reform school, after which young Stimson obtains a marriage license and they live happily ever after

Political Jottings

Mr. McCormick follows the same method in claiming credit for legislation he does in his predictions. He includes several acts of the Taft Administration.

The Democratic press is convinced that it is the duty of Mr. Hughes to say something that will hurt his chance of being elected.

President Wilson in his acceptance speech may reply to Mr. Hughes' charges, but he will not answer them. That is an entirely different matter.

It is reported from Washington that the Administration will ignore most of Mr. Hughes' charges. That is very much the easiest way for it to answer them.

Governor Hughes announces in one of his speeches that he is a constructionist. But we are willing to admit that so far as Democratic policies are concerned he is a destructionist.

Tammany leader Charles F. Murphy announces that he will retire after the campaign. It is believed that many other more or less distinguished Democrats will follow his example.

Grover Cleveland was the last Democratic President. He was also the last President to issue bonds to secure money to defray the running expenses of the government. But Wilson will tie him in this.

President Wilson will be notified of the Democratic nomination at Shadow Lawn This seems a most appropriate place for letting him know that he will shortly have to give up his place in the sun.

President Wilson will not make any speaking dates we are told but only separate engagements for addresses, considering a "speaking tour' undignified. "Too proud to fight"

Pity the Man Who Doesn't Advertise!

By Brown.

"I have an established business. I don't require advertising."

That is the answer of some self satisfied man to a request for advertising. Meanwhile his progressive neighbor is using printer's ink lavishly.

The result is obvious. It's only a question of time. The self satisfied business man soon finds his trade disappearing. His progressive neighbor goes ahead with leaps and bounds. Every business, no matter how firmly established, needs advertising. If it isn't advertised it soon will be in a rut. Don't get in a rut. Advertise.
